The Angelus

Officiant: The Angel of the Lord announced unto Mary,

*Officiant: Hail Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee,
Blessed art thou among women,
And blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus.*

People: Holy Mary, Mother of God, pray for us sinners,
Now and at the hour of our death. Amen.

Officiant: Behold the handmaid of the Lord;

People: Be it unto me according to thy word.

Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee,
Blessed art thou among women,
And blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus.

Officiant: And the Word was made flesh,

People: And dwelt among us.

Hail, Mary, full of grace, the Lord is with thee,
Blessed art thou among women,
And blessed is the fruit of thy womb, Jesus.

Officiant: Pray for us, O holy Mother of God.

People: That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Officiant: "Grace be unto you, and peace, from God+ our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ." Phillipians 1:2

Confession of Sin

The Officiant says to the people:

Dearly beloved, we have come together in the presence of Almighty God our heavenly Father, to render thanks for the great benefits that we have received at his hands, to set forth his most worthy praise, to hear this holy Word, and to ask, for ourselves and on behalf of others, those things that are necessary for our life and our salvation. And so that we may prepare ourselves in heart and mind to worship him, let us kneel in silence, and with penitent and obedient hearts confess our sins, that we may obtain forgiveness by his infinite goodness and mercy.

Silence

Officiant and People together, all kneeling:

Almighty and most merciful Father, we have erred and strayed from thy ways like lost sheep, we have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts, we have offended against thy holy laws, we have left undone those things which we ought to have done, and we have done those things which we ought not to have done. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us, spare thou those who confess their faults, restore thou those who are penitent, according to thy promises declared unto mankind in Christ Jesus our Lord; and grant, O most merciful Father, for his sake, that we may hereafter live a godly, righteous, and sober life, to the glory of thy holy Name. Amen.

The Officiant alone stands and says:

The Almighty and merciful Lord grant us absolution and remission of all our sins, true repentance, amendment of life, and the grace and consolation of his Holy Spirit. Amen.

HYMN 377: “All people that on earth do dwell”

Old 100th Psalm Tune arr. Ralph Vaughan Williams

1. All people that on earth do dwell, sing to the Lord with cheerful voice:
him serve with mirth, his praise forth tell,
come ye before him and rejoice.

2. The Lord, ye know, is God indeed;
without our aid he did us make:
we are his folk, he doth us feed,
and for his sheep he doth us take.

3. For why? the Lord our God is good,
his mercy is forever sure;
his truth at all times firmly stood,
and shall from age to age endure.

4. To Father, Son, and Holy Ghost,
the God whom heaven and earth adore,
from men and from the angel host be praise and glory evermore.

5. O enter then his gates with praise, approach with joy his courts unto;
praise, laud, and bless his Name always,
for it is seemly so to do.

The General Thanksgiving - Officiant and People:

Almighty God, Father of all mercies, we thine unworthy servants do give thee most humble and hearty thanks for all thy goodness and loving-kindness to us and to all men. We bless thee for our creation, preservation, and all the blessings of this life; but above all for thine inestimable love in the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ; for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory.

And, we beseech thee, give us that due sense of all thy mercies, that our hearts may be unfeignedly thankful; and that we show forth thy praise, not only with our lips, but in our lives, by giving up ourselves to thy service, and by walking before thee in holiness and righteousness all our days; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with thee and the Holy Spirit, be all honor and glory, world without end. Amen.

Officiant: Let us bless the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

The Officiant:

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the fellowship of the Holy Ghost, be with us all evermore. Amen. 2 Corinthians 13:14
